

The International School of Kuala Lumpur
Information Technology Instruction:
Grades 7/8 Web Design Standards and Benchmarks

Standard 1: Understands the nature and operations of information/technology systems.

1.1: Students will understand concepts underlying the Internet and the World Wide Web.

Standard 2: Understands the ethical, cultural, and social issues related to information and technology.

2.1: Students will exhibit legal and ethical behaviors specific to the World Wide Web, and discuss consequences of misuse.

Standard 3: Uses information technology to enhance learning, increase productivity and promote creativity.

3.1: Students will use software specific to web design and image editing to support the creation of web sites.

3.2: Students will apply productivity/multimedia tools and peripherals to support web design.

Standard 4: Uses technology to process and communicate information effectively.

4.1: Students will design, develop, publish, and present web sites that demonstrate the principles of effective web design appropriate to chosen audiences.

Note: The Standards above were adopted from the Information Technology Standards.